P. O. Box 1255

Suffolk, Virginia 23434

March '81
The Suffolk-Nansemond Historical Society will meet on Sunday, March 29, 1981 at 3:00 p.m. in Riddick's Folly on North Main Street. Mr. Jim Rollings, in Public Relations with the Yorktown Victory Center, will present the program concerning their planned Bicentennial Celebration.

A short business meeting will precede the program.

The Historical Society needs your support and we strongly encourage you to enjoy, with us, this once-in-our-lifetime program. Make a special effort to come to this meeting. We need you.

Other dates of interest are May 9, 1981 and June 13, 1981. The Suffolk Department of Parks and Recreation is planning the annual spring trip to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C. on Saturday, May 9. Reservations can be made by calling the Birdsong Recreation Center at 934-3111, Ext. 325. On Saturday, June 13, the second Annual Magnolia Festival of the Arts will be on the grounds of the Birdsong Recreation Center.

Several new titles are available from the Southern Historical Press. They are:

- (1) PETITIONS OF THE EARLY INHABITANTS OF KENTUCKY TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF VIRGINIA, 1769 to 1792; Robertson.
- (2) CERTIFICATE BOOK OF THE VIRGINIA LAND COMMISSION, 1779-1780; The Kentucky Historical Society.
- (3) LIFE AS REVEALED THROUGH EARLY AMERICAN COURT RECORDS: Crowson.

We're looking forward to seeing you March 29th.
